

Ambiguous Forms 3

OKHA

Ambiguous Forms is a series of new works by Adam Court of OKHA, based in Cape Town, South Africa. Grounded in a strong connection to nature and material process, Ambiguous Forms present striking compositions of sand-cast alloys of aluminum, brass and copper with large slabs of carbonized stone pine and other exotic hewn and polished timbers.

Shown: Cast bronze legs with a solid saligna top.

$12,940

Limited Edition

18W X 25.6D X 13.1H in

twentieth