

Double-Weight

Temple

DOUBLE-WEIGHT is a design derived from a series of watercolors Eric Hildebrandt created during the pandemic. It is available in four moody, sophisticated colorways, in all wool or combined with pure silk. The central elements sit above the ground in a raised pile height which serves to add more definition and dimension to the rug.

Hand knotted in Nepal.

Starting at:

Custom sizing available (with or without ravines)

twentieth