

Luna A X-Small Disc Pendant

Gabriel Scott

An allusive play of light is rendered through a coordinated stacking of glass forms blown by master artisans in various gradients of colored glass to create the Luna A X-Small Disc Pendant.

The Luna A Series is based on the coveted design of the existing Luna light, a favorite choice for international architects and designers, and is inspired by a lunar halo with elegant shapes of of mouth-blown glass referencing the moon's diffused light and soft glow.
