

Museum Glass Console

Christopher Kreiling

The Museum Console was inspired by the Museum Bench. It's made of glass pipes, solid steel, and is strong enough to hold up to 250 pounds! The steel has a blackened patina that reads as a dark graphite gray in bright light and black in dim light. It's then coated with a matte finish to protect it from rusting. This solid industrial modern piece is definitely a conversation starter.

$17,500

Leadtime: 8-10 Weeks

Shipping from Los Angeles

60" W x 17.5" D x 32" H

twentieth