

Portal Table Lamp

Christopher Boots

Emanating luminescence from a minimalist form, PORTAL TABLE LAMP embodies the cyclical nature of existence. Looking through PORTAL TABLE LAMP one is drawn through a metaphysical passageway connecting two environments, dimensions or points in time.

Starting at: $4,593

PORTAL TABLE LAMP is available in two sizes and two rock versions: an opaque honed Carrara Marble; or a naturally translucent, glowing boulder of rough Clear, Rose or Smoky Quartz.
