

Specimen Table

Christopher Boots

Drawing inspiration from colonial European families' collections of natural objects, serving as a testament to their worldly travels. Historically, specimen tables featured inlays of natural objects like bone, timber, and semi-precious stones, telling stories of far-off lands.

Embracing the collector's concept, the SPECIMEN TABLE showcases a curated selection of minerals used by the studio, evoking a museum-like atmosphere.

$43,700

Unique

Ø 34.5" x 16.7"

twentieth