

Subtracted Cube

Daniele Albright

Subtracted Cube is a study in blending minimalism with extravagant luxury. The name derives from one of the essential digital modeling elements, using one primitive form to remove from another to create a third. Executed in brass, the result is a minimal yet surreally glamorous sculptural form.

Starting at: $32,000

28" H x 44" W x 33" D; 14.25" SH

twentieth