

Vanity Screen

Christopher Boots

Christopher Boots creation, VANITY SCREEN, was a project of love that required four years to realize. First presented at Collective Design in New York in May 2017, the room divider incorporates clear and smoky quartz crystal and lapis lazuli in contrast to a moon-like surface cast in solid bronze. The celestial screen is the first in a limited edition of eight and the first of its kind in a new direction for the studio, expanding into cast furniture and objects. Unique piece in a series of 8.
