

Welles Arm Sconce by Kelly Hoppen

Gabriel Scott

The Welles Arm Sconce by Kelly Hoppen presents a simplified design, which maintains a sense of movement through the rotating arm. Kelly Hoppen's capsule collection also comprises of three different sizes of Long Chandelier, a Pendant light and a Small Sconce.

The overall form has been scaled down from its original size to create an elegantly delicate aesthetic.

Crafted from white clay and complemented by Gabriel Scott's signature metal finishes, Kelly's reinterpretation is inspired by a collection of ceramics that she is currently designing. Kelly has focused on the materials and scaled the size down to create an elegant overall
