

Welles Glass Long Chandelier 26

Gabriel Scott

A fixture inspired by Scott Richler's background in jewelry design, the Welles Glass Chandelier is a reinterpretation of the original Welles Steel Chandelier. Welles Glass is available in alabaster white or smoked gray as standard, or we now also offer a Textured Glass option which comes in three textures and three colors that you can mix and match for all 26 Welles modules however you want to.

Diffusing a soft light through its prismatic glass, the Welles Glass chandelier is the perfect option for any dining, living, kitchen, bedroom or dressing room space.

Combine the Welles Glass chandelier with other pieces in the collection, which includes single or double wall sconces and a desk lamp.
