

Welles Steel Central Long Chandelier 8

Gabriel Scott

The Welles Chandelier is Gabriel Scott's most popular and well known lighting fixture. Originally launched in steel, with black and white options available, the Welles Steel 8 Chandelier is a contemporary modular system of interconnected configurations.

When specifying your Welles Steel Chandelier, choose from either a blended white or black steel and metal hardware finish or an all-over nickel, copper or brass finish.

The Welles Steel Chandelier has been used across hundreds of residential and hospitality projects since its launch in 2017.
